* Read the passage carefully then choose the best answer for the following questions A Friend of Liberality

When I was in high school, there was a girl whom I disliked. I don't know why I dislike her. She had always been friendly towards me, and had never done anything to cause me to feel the same way I did about her. I was continually saying unpleasant things to her, making fun of her, snubbing her.

One day as I was going home from school, the girl caught up with me and told me that our teacher wanted me to come back for a while. I did not believe her and walked on down the street, leaving the girl standing alone.

The next day when I got to school, our teacher asked me: "Why didn't you come back to the school as I asked you to?" I said: "I didn't know you wanted me?". The teacher sent for the girl and asked her: "Did you tell Rose to come back?" The girl answered, "I'm sorry, but I didn't tell her; I couldn't catch up with her". I was surprised and suddenly realized how pretty she was. I felt I ought to be ashamed of myself and I found out all my faults in comparison with her liberality.
