Louis Braille was born in France in 1809. His father had a small business. He made shoes and other things from leather. Louis liked to help his father in the store even when he was very small. One day, when Louis was 3 years old, he was cutting some leather. Suddenly, the knife slipped and hit him in the eyes. He soon became completely blind.

When he was 10 years old, he entered the National Institute for the blind in Paris. One day, his class went to visit a special exhibit by a captain in the army. One thing was very interesting for Louis. It showed message in code. Armies send messages in secret codes so no one else can read them. The captain wrote this code in raised letters on very thick papers. . .

IV. Read the passage, then choose the correct completion.

Last year I went to Nepal for my holiday, I decided to go into the jungle and I asked a Nepalese guide, Kamal Rai, to go with me. In the jungle there were a lot of wildlife, but we were trying to find big cats, especially tigers. We climbed onto the elephants' backs to get better view, but it is unusual to find tigers in the afternoon because they sleep in the heat on the day. Then, in the distance, we saw a tiger, and Kamal told me to be very quiet. We crept nearer and found a dead deer still bleeding. This was the tiger's lunch! Suddenly, I started to feel very frightened.
