III. READING. Read the passage then answer the questions

I am very interested in languages, because when I go abroad I like to speak with the people there. I try to play the guitar. I don't play very well but every week I meet a friend and we both enjoy ourselves playing together. I live very near the sea. All through the year I go for walks along the shore, and in the summer I go swimming every day. In the winter I like knitting. I make jumpers for my children and grandchildren, and I enjoy doing different patterns. I spend a lot of time reading, mostly novels, and I am very fond of poetry. I also write poetry now and then.

New words:

go abroad: đi nước ngoài	enjoy oneself: thích thú
together: cùng nhau	shore: bờ biển      knitting: đan jumper: áo liền quần	pattern: mẫu (quần áo)      poetry: thơ    now and then = sometimes

Read the passage then answer the questions

Chess must be one of the oldest games in the world. An Arab traveler in India in 900 wrote that it was played "long, long ago". Chess was probably invented in India, and it has been played everywhere from Japan to Europe since 1400. The name “chess” is interesting. When one player is attacking the other’s king, he says in English “check”. When the king has been caught and cannot move anywhere, he says “checkmate”. These words came from Persian. “Shah mat” means “the king is dead”. That is when the game is over, and one player has won. Such an old game changes very slowly. The rules have not always been the same as they are now. For example, at one time the queen could only move one square at a time. Now she is the strongest piece on the board. It would be interesting to know why this has happened. Chess takes time and thought, but it is a game for all kinds of people. You don’t have to be a champion in order to enjoy it. It is not always played by two people sitting at the same table. The first time the Americans beat the Russians was in a match played by radio. Some of the chess masters are able to play with many people at the same time. The record was when one man played 400 games! It is said that some people play chess by post. This must make chess the slowest game in the world
